

Mercer's Air Emissions - Particulates

The particulate air emissions (kg per tonne of pulp) have improved by 6% in 2020.

Mercer continues to implement initiatives at the mills to further reduce this air quality parameter through process optimization as well as upgrading pollution prevention devices.